in "Friday". And he said if Friday was not the day, that it was Saturday or Sunday your guests reached you, you can change it. I should change it. I have those letters from him that you can use and match up with your shorthand.

Q Have you any objection to letting me have those before I go? A. I have not got them here. I have them in Philadelphia. Mr. Stevens asked me to put them in a strong box so I would not lose sight of them. So I have got them up at my home at Philadelphia, the whole business. I have his envelopes and his letters saying what he said, which he tried to mislead them, no doubt, my relatives. So, I forget where I was at now.

Q You were now at the point of your relatives coming into the house some time after 11 o'clock on Thursday, September 14, 1922.

A. They came here and we sat up awhile and then retired. The following morning, which was Friday, the 15th, I put my bathing suit on and they wanted to take a dip in the ocean. So I went in advance to the beach and I met Mr. Stevens again around five o'clock and he and I threw one of his seines for mullet. It is all lead around. You have to be pretty strong to throw it.

Q Was he on the beach? A. He was on the beach with me, and I fished there for over--I don't know, half an hour.

Q What time was that? A. I don't want to get up on the
